

T O M H I S C O C K S

Hi,

I am currently working to complete the 20 sculptures that are to be included in my forthcoming exhibition at the Catto Gallery 100 Heath St, Hampstead, NW3 1DP, opening on 24th October and running to 11th November 2019.

The preview evening is Thursday 24th October from 6pm to 8.30pm and you are most welcome.

The Catto Gallery, 100 Heath St, Hampstead NW3 1DP

Images of some of the works are available to view through the online catalogue here, and I will add other images of new works to my website during the lead up to the exhibition.

I have some sculptures in copper with mirror polished steel and Portland stone; some in Acrylic; my first two in glass; some in phosphorous bronze, and some – like the new version of Drinking Horse below – in stainless steel.

Drinking Horse 2019. Stainless steel on polished steel on corten steel. 175cm x 50cm x 70cm (edition of 8)

It is slightly frantic at the moment but I think it will all come together, and I hope it will make an engaging exhibition. I particularly hope that there may be a time whilst it is open that you can come along – on your own; with a friend or as a group.

At the bottom of this email I have given the dates when I will definitely be there, but I am happy to come and join you at other times if these dates don't suit you and your friends. I am happy to chat through the works in the exhibition, and / or to talk about the way I work. Do drop me an email if you are interested and we will make a plan.

I started showing work with the Catto Gallery in 2015, and have enjoyed a successful relationship with Iain, Sophie, Kate and Imogen since then. If you call in at any stage, you will receive a warm welcome from them. I am sharing the exhibition with Internationally renowned Austrian water-colourist and etcher Bernhard Vogel.

On 9th November, I will be drawing a name from all those of you who elect to receive these monthly updates, and that person will win a copy of my Drinking Horse III in acrylic (see below).

Drinking Horse – acrylic on polished steel on American Walnut. 32cm x 16cm x 16cm (edition of 12)

Whilst it may be counter intuitive on this basis, for you to prompt others to 'subscribe', I would really appreciate it if you can encourage art enthusiasts amongst your friends and colleagues to register their email through my website.

I hope I will see many of you during this period, but if the dates do not work, please feel free to contact me directly, and to call into my studio. It would be a pleasure to welcome you.

With warm wishes,
Tom

The gallery is open Monday – Saturday 10am to 6pm, and on Sundays 12.30pm to 6pm. I will be there to chat about my work on the following dates, and otherwise by arrangement:
